

Punctuation practice – Add correct punctuation where necessary. Write a C if the sentence is correct. Sentences may be simple, compound, or complex.

1. The Mach which is a unit used to measure sound is named for Austrian physicist Ernst Mach.
2. Mercury is one of the planets that can be seen without the aid of a telescope.
3. Dan Vogel who was my neighbor in Des Moines taught me how to dance the tango.
4. Shopping for clothes bores my husband so I select his new suits.
5. Jasmine whom you met last night will attend Smith College next fall.
6. Many commercials for food feature cats and dogs.
7. Before you return the book to the library be sure to remove the bookmark.
8. The jury ruled that Dominic was responsible for the damage to the car that he struck.
9. Many women who marry today retain their maiden names.
10. Can you name an American President and Vice-President who served together but were not elected?
11. The process of impeachment is such a serious act that it has rarely been attempted in our history.
12. When the summer was over few traces of the vacation crowd were visible.
13. Her parents prepared their wills and placed their assets in a trust.
14. We wanted to thank our guide but we didn't know how to say it.
15. Anyone who wants to lose weight must exercise as well as diet.