

Lane Community College

Name:

PTA 101L Intro to Clinical Practice Lab

Score:

/ 50

Rating:

V+ / V / V- / Repeat

PHYSICAL AGENT SKILL CHECK

 Critical Safety Elements are noted in BOLD as red flags. All red flag elements must be demonstrated to receive skill check points. Skill checks must be successfully completed within three attempts in order to pass the course.

	Comments/Grade
Prepares Pt. & Treatment Area (10 points) <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Arranges for & prepares necessary equipment, supplies & treatment area prior to Rx in a timely manner2.  Screen patient for precautions & contraindications3. Assists patient in preparing for treatment4. Positions patient appropriately (comfortable and safe)5.  Drapes patient appropriately
Communication (10 points) <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Identifies self and patient2. Explains procedures, purposes, & intended results3. Explanation correct in substance4. Demonstrates active listening skills5. Gives clear, concise instructions6. Maintains composure and professional demeanor
Application (10 points) <ol style="list-style-type: none">1.  Familiarizes self with equipment prior to treatment2.  Inspects area to be treated prior to application; checks sensation3. Applies physical agent according to classroom guidelines4. Monitors pt. response to physical agent & modifies Rx
Safety  (Pass No Pass) <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Washes hands thoroughly before and after handling pt. supplies & equipment2. Recognizes safety hazards & takes steps to prevent injury3. Utilizes proper guarding techniques4. Uses proper body mechanics while handling equipment & working with pt.
Timeliness (10 points) <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Application completed within allotted time frame2. Clean up completed during actual treatment time frame

Progress Note (10 Points) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Written legibly, signature clear and initials included 2. Utilized proper grammar & spelling; handles errors correctly 3. Written concisely and with logical organization 4. Used appropriate medical terminology & program approved abbreviations 5. Included pertinent information correctly (SOAP) 6. Documented objective measurements accurately 7. Written within the time limits (loss of points when greater than time allowed)
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

Grading Criteria – 50 Points

V+ or V* indicates safe and effective treatment 😊

V-* indicates omissions, ineffective Rx, below appropriate level 😞

Repeat* indicates unsafe and/or ineffective Rx 😞