

Lane Community College

Name:

PTA 101L Intro to Clinical Practice Lab

Score:

/ 20

Rating:

V+ / V / V- / Repeat

Skill Check Superficial Heat & Cryotherapy

 Critical Safety Elements are noted in BOLD as red flags. All red flag elements must be demonstrated to receive skill check points. Skill checks must be successfully completed within three attempts in order to pass the course.

Prepares Patient and Treatment Area	/5
Readies treatment area prior to positioning the patient.  Position the patient in a manner which is comfortable, safe and facilitates the modality application.  Drape the patient in a manner which preserves the pt. modesty, yet allows the Rx to be administered with minimal adjustments.  Screen the patient for contraindications.
Communication	/5
Introduce self and explains procedure (includes what pt should and should not feel)
Application of Intervention	/10
 Inspects skin and performs sensation check. Apply to correct location Modifies application according to patient response Indicates Rx time to achieve desired effect  Leaves pt. with a bell to contact the therapist  Checks the pt. in 5 min. and inspects skin and bony prominences for redness/irritation
Safety	P/NP
<input type="checkbox"/>  washes hands before and after patient contact <input type="checkbox"/>  secures brakes as needed during treatment <input type="checkbox"/>  discontinues the intervention based on the patient response <input type="checkbox"/>  uses good body mechanics during the activity <input type="checkbox"/>  positions patient safely; reapplies patient safety devices as needed	