

Tentative PTA 205L Schedule – Winter 2011

Section 1: Complex Cardiopulmonary and Lymphatic Disorders
Monday, January 3	Cardiac Rehabilitation Considerations Increased workload over time Guest Lecturer: Debbie Proctor, OHVI	Assistive Devices Energy Conservation for the home setting Monitoring exertion Cardiac Rehab progressions
	Breathing and Relaxation Intervention review	Manual techniques for relaxation
	Interventions for Lymphatic Dysfunction Guest Lecturer: John Beckwith, PT, PeaceHealth	Manual Lymphatic Drainage Compression therapy for lymphedema Tests and measures for compression therapy Intermittent Pneumatic Compression SKILL CHECK: COMPRESSION
Section 2: Interventions for Diabetes/Amputation
Monday, January 10	Guest Lecturer: John Roberts, Hanger Prosthetic and Orthopedic Prosthetics Stump care Splinting considerations Functional Impacts of Neuropathy	Skin assessment; signs and symptoms of misfit Gait analysis and training Patient instruction stump/skin care Exercise interventions and patient safety during exercise Wheelchair positioning SKILL CHECK: SKIN INSPECTION AND DOCUMENTATION
Section 3: Hybrid Lab Activities
January 17-February 28	Clinical Problem Solving and Effective Communication	Patient Practioner Workbook HIV Discussion Forum Patient Referral Reference Sheet

Section 4: Medical Asepsis and Interventions for Wound Management

Monday, March 7 and Monday, March 14	Medical asepsis Infection control for immunocompromised	Medical asepsis practice Clean technique Interventions for wound management Dressing changes Topical agents Physical agents Positioning/splinting Tests and measures for wound management SKILL CHECK: DRESSING CHANGE
---	---	---

Section 5: Laboratory Final – Case Studies

Tuesday, March 15: 8a-5pm	Case Study	Treatment planning Treatment modification Treatment analysis and peer feedback Synthesis
---------------------------	------------	---