

Mad Lib Version

	[Salutation, person's name].
My name is	[your name],
and I am	[job title]
in	[discipline/area/division].
In my area, we	[teach/help/guide]
students/people to	[whatever you teach/help/guide them to do].
One important thing we teach students is	[key concept you teach].
This concept applies to student's personal and future professional lives by	[list 2-3 ways this knowledge is/can be applied by students outside the classroom].
Here is an example of what that looks like	[provide a quick (1-3 sentence), concrete example of what this concept looks like in action].
For students, this knowledge is relevant and important because	[1-3 reasons why this knowledge and it's application is important for students].
That's a little about what I do.	[Thanks for asking OR here's why I shared that with you. . .].